

Blossom Room Newsletter

November 2017

November/December features:

Rights of the child:

I am involved in daily planning for transitions.

Respect:

I value diversity in language, ethnic backgrounds, faith and family circumstances.

Relationship:

I am developing a positive sense of self and feel good about myself.

Responsive Care:

I feel connected to my home environment and the wider community.

Parents Evening Tuesday 28th November

we will be having a parents evening if you wish to attend could I ask that you make an appointment with your child's keyworker.

Hats and scarves

Just a little reminder to ask that we have appropriate clothing to keep our little one's warm, it's getting really cold outside and this would allow us to enjoy the outdoors with our little blossoms.

Welcome to our new Blossom staff member
Kim.

Christmas Holidays

Our last day at nursery is Wednesday 20th Dec at 6.15pm and we re-open Thursday 4th Jan at 7.30am.

Christmas Party Week

We will be having a full Christmas party week rather than having our party on the one day, and Santa will be visiting our nursery every day too.
